

BENJAMIN CHARLES BARTLETT

i n t e r n a t i o n a l   b a r i t o n e

Benjamin studied vocal technique with Piero Mattei, Baritone at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden for a period of two years and then won a scholarship to study voice with Donatella Debolini at the world famous 'Scuola di Musica' in Florence, Italy.

He also studied acting and performance with Alex Griffin at the Italian/English Theatre.

Making his debut singing the Baritone solo in Faure's Requiem, Benjamin's performances have since taken him all over the world.

He has sung with some of the finest singers in the world including Claudio Desderi, Jose Carreras, Max Boyce, Bryn Terfel, Sian Cothi and Michael Ball.

His notable performances include

'Jesus' in Roger Black's "Jarius Daughter"
